

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

GLD PARTNERS, L.P.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

SAGALIAM ACQUISITION CORP.,

Defendants.

:
:
:
:
:
:
:
:
:
:

Civil Action No. 23-1266-RGA

ORDER

The Court set a hearing on the TRO for Friday at 3 p.m. Defendant is to date unrepresented. That seems unlikely to change by tomorrow. Based on the letters submitted today (D.I. 18; D.I. 19), the Court does not expect Mr. Morris, Mr. Kostiner, or Ms. Austin to appear at the hearing.¹ Without a lawyer, they would simply be observers.

The TRO seeks to prevent a meeting on November 21st. I cannot simply continue the hearing until a date after Thanksgiving.

Thus, the Court needs to keep the hearing date. The hearing will be on the record.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 16th day of November 2023.

United States District Judge

¹ I directed that the order scheduling the hearing be emailed to them, not as a command to appear, and not as a request that any of them represent the corporate defendant, but as notice so that they would have an opportunity to obtain a Delaware lawyer who could represent Defendant.